New York, NY, July 11: Nearly 115,000 people in the United States are waiting for an organ donation; many recipients would not survive to a normal life expectancy. Only 34,770 received a transplant in 2017.

Registerme.org is now the nationwide registry for organ donation which takes seconds”

Jackie LueRaia

In this “Gift of Life” new episode of Beyond My Crisis with Ron & Vivian their guest, Jackie Lue Raia, an organ donation advocate whose experience is in donations after the death of individuals, will reveal her tragic story and why it is critical to register as an organ donor. Myths about organ donation are debunked while Jackie describes her tireless passion to promote the positive outcomes of organ donations. Nearly 20 people die everyday due to the lack of organ donations and Jackie describes how her efforts on CBS and other broadcast network TV stations are delivering the wisdom to save lives.

She explains the importance of informing family and friends about the myths and misconceptions about organ donation and that no religion actually prohibits this life giving opportunity. It is critically important to let those close to you know your wishes, if there ever comes an opportunity for you to be an organ donor. One donor may save up to 8 lives, restore sight for 2 people and heal the lives of up to 75 people! "Registerme.org is now the nationwide registry for organ donation which takes seconds" explains Jackie.
