STOURPORT-ON-SEVERN, UNITED KINGDOM, July 13, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- When you are a square peg desperately trying to squeeze into the proverbial hole, you can't be at your best. Some time in our lives we are tangled with being liked and our actions approved by others. A move that may lose sight who we really are.

Knowing your worth and what your life becomes can be sorted out by a book titled "Square Hole for a Square Peg" by Author Exona Moll.

The most engaging book for people who disliked themselves for being alienated and for not fitting in. "Square Hole for a Square Peg" make readers see beyond and urge them to own the situation.

For Exona Moll, only when she decided to be tough that her life changed for the better for no one can do more to improve your happiness and your life than you can.

About the Author:

My life seemed of no particular use. I did not fit in well with my fellows around me. Over time I decided, rather than try to alter myself, I would try to alter my surroundings. After achieving a degree of success I thought it might be helpful to others, to write my story down. Hence 'A Square Hole for a Square Peg' came to be written.
