latest aesthetic procedures. Apollo intends to continue Cosmedical's rich tradition of cutting edge treatments using the latest products and technology administered by experts in the field and offering expanded treatments and a new management team.

Simultaneous with the acquisition, Apollo also announced the hiring of Julie Robbins, Operations Director, and Andrew Nobles, Sales Operations Manager, to lead Cosmedical. Julie is a registered nurse with over 10 years' experience in the industry and Andrew is a Licensed Esthetician with over 7 years' experience. Dr. Lawrence Segal will continue as Medical Director of Cosmedical and Rebecca McKoy, has agreed to join the Apollo Med Spa Advisory Board.

Cosmedical intends to offer customers the latest in aesthetic and wellness treatments including:

- Popular injectables like Botox and Juvederm
- Laser hair removal
- Micro-needling treatments for skin rejuvenation
- PDO thread treatments – known as the “lunchtime facelift”
- Weight-loss and body contouring treatments using cryotherapy
- Laser treatments for multiple skin issues including fine lines, wrinkles, sun spots, scarring and others
- Massage Treatments
- Hormone Pellet Treatments
- Industry leading cosmeceutical and cosmetic lines

"We are excited to be joining the Apollo team and leading Cosmedical in serving Peachtree City and the surrounding communities with the latest aesthetic and wellness procedures. We intend to expand on Cosmedical's tradition of unsurpassed patient outcomes and add broad wellness therapies.

Andrew and I have moved to the community and intend to become actively involved in such a wonderful area" said Julie Robbins, Operations Director.

Randy Wright, CEO of Apollo, said, "The acquisition of Cosmedical is part of Apollo's overall growth strategy of providing both the latest technological offerings to the aesthetic industry and delivering world class service through company owned and operated spas. We are proud that Julie and Andrew have agreed to join the Apollo team and to lead Cosmedical by providing the latest treatments and services to our valued customers."

Apollo also announced that the Cosmedical facilities will also serve as the national training facility for Apollo's master PDO thread training course series.
