

Spirit Airlines Introduce New Routes this Winter for Dominican Republic and Jamaica

Extra routes to the Caribbean with Spirit Airlines

NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, July 23, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Exceptional Villas, the luxury villa rental company have revealed that low-cost carrier Spirit Airlines are introducing a rapid expansion of flights to the Caribbean at the end of this year creating more options for visitors to this region.

Spirit Airlines have announced two major routes to their schedule including a daily non-stop from Newark Liberty International Airport to Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic along with weekly service between Detroit and Montego Bay in Jamaica.

The flights for the Dominican Republic will launch on November 8th while the flights for Jamaica will launch operations on December 20th of this year.

Jamaica and the Dominican Republic are known for the beauty and hospitality and are great options for winter and family vacations, so the addition of these flight will be a great boost for the regions.

Spirit Airlines is one of the fastest growing airlines in the Caribbean region and offers their clients an affordable quality service to the Caribbean.

The Dominican Republic is an extraordinarily beautiful country and has some of the best pristine white sandy beaches in the Caribbean. It occupies the eastern two-thirds of Hispaniola, which it shares with Haiti and, as a result, the country is infused with a wonderful and very vibrant Latin flavor. You will also find a hint of Spanish, French and British influences here.
