"We are honored to have our innovative AirPro Solutions recognized by ACHR News," said Topher Nelson, Global Product Manager at TSI. "Customers told us they wanted durable, easy-to-use instruments which make their work easier. So, TSI developed AirPro Solutions to meet those requirements and deliver the next level of performance."

AirPro Solutions is comprised of innovative ventilation instruments, paired with the AirPro Mobile app for easy collection, logging, and sending key data from a job. Connect multiple meters at the same time, to considerably increase your productivity.

The ACHR News is the leading trade magazine in the heating, ventilating, air conditioning, and refrigeration industries. News Publisher Mike Murphy stated, "These awards give us a unique opportunity to recognize the outstanding research and development efforts that go into many of the products serving the HVACR industry and the awards issue gives our readers an opportunity to read about innovative installation and service solutions."

Winning entries in the Dealer Design Awards were featured in the July 23, 2018 issue of The ACHR News, which is distributed nationally to over 33,000 HVACR contractors, wholesalers, and other industry professionals.
