

Florida Attorney Richard Ehrlich has been selected to join "Lawyers of Distinction"

"Lawyers of Distinction" requires a four-part procedure where a lawyer must first be nominated, followed by an evaluation, ethics review, and final selection.

CORAL SPRINGS, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, July 25, 2018

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Ehrlich Law Center announced today that attorney Richard Ehrlich has been selected to join the "Lawyers of Distinction" organization. "Lawyers of Distinction" is an online legal directory that limits membership to only ten (10) percent of the lawyers in the country. Before being approved, they must first pass through an extensive review by a committee. The Selection Process involves a four-part procedure where a lawyer must first be nominated (for example by peers), followed by an evaluation (professional achievement and peer recognition), ethics review, and final selection.

Richard Ehrlich, Estate Planning attorney in Florida

Richard stated, "As you can imagine I am very honored and humbled to be considered, let alone being asked to join a distinguished group of talented lawyers." He went on to add "I hope my clients find me to be accessible, prompt, courteous and someone that pays attention to detail. These are all the qualities you would expect and want from an experienced attorney."
