

Heament John Kurian joins the Thomas Gaiter Foundation Board of Directors

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, April 2, 2019 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Heament John Kurian is the managing director of Rockwell Collins Information Management Services (IMS) division in the Asia Pacific.

Kurian has over 21 years of experience in the aviation industry. He joined ARINC's headquarters in the United States in 2000 and moved to Singapore in 2003 to establish the company's Asia Pacific headquarters.

"Since the launch of the Asia Pacific business, Heament has been instrumental in advancing the company's long-term strategy and growth of its business in the region," said DiGeorge.

"With his in-depth knowledge of the region, the company and the industry, Heament is the right person to optimize synergy opportunities and lead the Rockwell Collins IMS business in the region to its next stage of growth and development."

Kurian has held senior positions in business development for both the Airlines and Airport's business portfolio and was previously Senior Manager of Corporate Business Development and Senior Program Manager for GLOBALinkSM in Asia. He also led the Commercial Aviation Solutions portfolio for the Asia Pacific to marked success, achieving year-on-year growth and expanding the business in new markets.

Rockwell Collins counts, amongst its customers, some of the biggest airports and airlines in the Asia Pacific including Hong Kong International Airport, Incheon International Airport, Indira Gandhi International Airport, Korean Air, and Cathay Pacific Airways.
