

Prostate Cancer Foundation of Chicago to Host Free Prostate Cancer Screening

On Friday, September 7, 2018, Prostate Cancer Foundation of Chicago will be hosting a free prostate cancer screening.

WESTMONT, IL, UNITED STATES, July 30, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Friday, September 7, 2018, Prostate Cancer Foundation of Chicago will be hosting a free prostate cancer screening. The prostate screening includes a PSA blood test and a digital rectal exam (DRE). The event will take place as part of National Prostate Cancer Awareness Month.

The screening event will take place from 7 a.m. until 2 p.m. at 815 Pasquinelli Drive, Westmont, Illinois. The DRE will be performed by a licensed physician and PSA results will be received within minutes of the test.

As a part of the free prostate cancer screening weekend, the Prostate Cancer Foundation of Chicago will also be hosting the 8th annual Run and Walk for Prostate Cancer Awareness. This charity event will take place on Sunday, September 9, 2018. The race starts at 8 a.m. and consists of a 5K run and 3K walk beginning and ending at Chicago Prostate Cancer Center.

The special host for this event is Dick Johnson, the NBC5 news anchor. Music will be played from a local cover band called, "Blue Sky Blind Band". All registered participants in the 5K are timed, and the three fastest runners for each age group are recognized with a medal or a ribbon. First place winners in each age group also win a prize. There will also be numerous raffles, auctions, face painting, and more.
