

Independent Artist's New Single a Call for Love and Positivity

Miranda Writes to release "Time to Time" August 3rd, 2018

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 2, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- There is no denying that the world is in dire need of greater togetherness, love, and a lot more fun. For Hip Hop artist Miranda Writes, being able to inspire her listeners through her upbeat, playful tracks is what making music is all about.

"Time to Time is about the freedom and peace I find when I'm creating music. Music is my refuge and there's nothing in this world that makes my soul feel better than the vibes I feel when I'm writing or on the mic."

Beginning first with poetry at 16, Miranda transitioned to songwriting just one year later, when she discovered her uncanny ability to flip her verses over beats.

What's most compelling about her sound is her ability to seamlessly fuse myriad influences... from 90's rap to today's best dance music into her sound, thus making it accessible, as well as artful.”

Music is not Miranda's only strength or creative outlet. On top of a fast-growing career, Miranda Writes is also a college student with a 3.9 GPA, as well as a talented snowboarder. It's obvious Miranda brings her strong work ethic and upbeat vibes wherever she goes.

“What's most compelling about her sound is her ability to seamlessly fuse myriad influences, ranging from 90's rap to today's best dance music into her sound, thus making it accessible, as well as artful,” commented music critic, novelist and HuffPost contributor Randy Radic.

Miranda Writes is currently in collaboration with producer Cool Typhoon, whose beats have appeared on E's The

Platinum Life and Oxygen's The Bad Girls Club. Together, they will release Miranda's next project, "In My Head."
