

GuardianCoin Inc. announces the appointment of David Moss as Senior Advisor.

THIS PRESS RELEASE IS NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION IN THE UNITED STATES

GEORGE TOWN, GRAND CAYMAN, CAYMAN ISLANDS, August 7, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GuardianCoin Inc. ("GCI"), a technology company that provides leading-edge solutions for security and privacy, is pleased to announce that blockchain industry leader David Moss has been appointed a GCI Senior Strategic Advisor.

David Moss, CEO of StrongBlock.io and until recently Senior Vice President of Technical Operations at Block.one, brings his considerable experience in blockchain, cryptocurrencies, and analytics to GCI.

As GuardianCoin Inc. prepares the launch of the GuardianCoin Network, I am delighted to support the organization and the technology as a Senior Advisor."

David Moss

Among many accomplishments at Block.one, David played a vital role in launching the EOS blockchain by leading the development of the first EOS software and Testnet release in December 2017, and in heading EOS Developer Relations. Before joining Block.one, David founded and led a technology and management consultancy for Fortune 100 companies, founded and led a predictive crowd analytics platform, and was the founding CIO of Edmunds.com.

As previously announced, David worked together with GCI to identify and resolve security vulnerabilities in the EOS TestNet prior to the launch of the EOS MainNet in June 2018.

David Moss commented: "Working with GuardianCoin to ensure the security of the EOS MainNet at launch, I was very impressed by both the quality of the technology and the Team. As GCI prepares the launch of the GuardianCoin Network, I am delighted to support the organization and the technology as a Senior Advisor."

GCI Director Harvey Boulter said: "We are very pleased to welcome David Moss to the GuardianCoin Team. As we complete the first Enterprise Ready, Privacy Enhanced blockchain, we believe David will provide key expertise in achieving our goals and in the success of the business."

About Guardian Coin Inc.

GCI is a technology company that provides leading-edge solutions for security and privacy. In 2018, GCI intends to launch the GuardianCoin Network, a fusion of four critical capabilities: a scalable, secure and decentralized 3rd Generation blockchain architecture; military-grade encryption for transactions; cryptographic anonymity for payments and messages; and an environment supporting the creation of dApps with security and privacy at their core. The GuardianCoin Network aims to be the world's first genuinely secure and scalable 3rd Generation

Blockchain, ensuring the privacy of transactions, the security of holdings and the anonymity of payments and messages at scale.

GCI is focused on delivering critically needed solutions to the enterprise and government markets, which are massive, under-served, and urgently require an advanced, security-first blockchain solution.
