

Infuse your next event with the spirit of Bali at The Ritz-Carlton, Bali

NUSA DUA, BALI, INDONESIA, August 7, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- When it comes to incentive travel, The Ritz-Carlton, Bali leads the way with its excellent facilities, superb location and innovative programs that harness the spirit of Bali and give guests a unique insight into traditional life on the island. The resort's newest incentive program takes its name and its inspiration from the Hindu philosophy of Tri Hita Karana and includes a Soul Purification Ritual, fun Team Building Activities and a fascinating Chefs Garden Tour and Cooking Class.

The concept of Tri Hita Karana translates loosely as the three forces of happiness: harmony with God, harmony with humankind and harmony with nature. The Balinese believe that maintaining the balance between spiritual and physical worlds is the key to wellbeing and prosperity.

This inspiring new program has been thoughtfully created to reflect the valuable Balinese philosophy Tri Hita Karana.”

Channeling the notion of harmony with God, the traditional Soul Purification Ritual is led by a Balinese priest at sunrise and includes an offering of devotion, following by a ritual with holy water to cleanse the body, mind and soul. A piece of three colored string called Benang Tridatu is then tied around the wrist as a symbol of balance, harmony and understanding.

For the Balinese, harmony with nature can be experienced in fishing, farming and foraging. Herbs and spices play a huge part in Balinese cookery as well as traditional medicine, and guests can learn all about this in the Chef's Garden Tour where they will collect ingredients for a casual and informative Balinese cooking class. The notion of community lies at the heart of Balinese heritage cuisine and traditionally a whole village will come together to prepare feasts for celebrations and holy days. Women create gebongan – multi layered towers of fruit, sweet cakes and decorations as elaborate offerings for the Gods. Meanwhile men take part in the ritual of mebat, as they prepare meat and spices used in the offering. Guests can enjoy this communal spirit as they create their own feast of classic Balinese dishes for lunch at the Culinary Cave.

The aspect of harmony with man is also witnessed in the strong sense of community on the island and inspires the program's enjoyable Team Building activities. The resort's secluded white sand beach is ideal for traditional games and low impact beach games like sack races, tug of war and marble and spoon races.

“This inspiring new program has been thoughtfully created to reflect the valuable Balinese philosophy Tri Hita Karana and to motivate, enthuse and reward individuals and teams, ensuring your next incentive trip is a resounding success,” says General Manager Karim Tayach. A dedicated team of event organizers can also be counted on to bring their experience and expertise to meetings and special occasions of any scale. All events are enhanced by state of the art facilities and legendary Ritz-Carlton service that ensures a flawless experience every time.
