

GHB Intellect Announces the Opening of New IP Consulting Office in Dallas, TX

The new GHB location will help the firm meet their growing demand for intellectual property consulting services in the Southern region of the United States.

DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, August 10, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GHB Intellect, an intellectual property consulting firm, is announcing the opening of a new location in Dallas, Texas to meet the growing needs of technology and science companies in the state of Texas.

This new location will serve as a satellite office for GHB Intellect's IP services and shall provide experts on the ground in Dallas who specialize in IP Development, IP Management, IP Monetization, M&A Advisory, and patent litigation support.

“

The city of Dallas boasts a strong community of innovative, highly-talented engineering and scientific-minded professionals who are truly on the cutting edge of technology/science.”

Dr. Ghobad Heidari, GHB Intellect Founder

With more than 40 universities and 21 Fortune 500 companies, the Dallas-Fort Worth area has a lot to offer in the intellectual property space. There is also a thriving startup scene and many inventive tech companies throughout the state including those located in nearby Austin, Houston, San Antonio and El Paso. These vibrant business communities will serve as a pillar location for the planned expansion of GHB Intellect in the coming 18 months.

GHB Intellect's Founder, Dr. Ghobad Heidari, is looking forward to serving the company's growing client base in the state of Texas. He says, "It has been a long time coming for us to develop a larger presence in Texas, and we are very excited to finally be adding resources there. The city of Dallas and many other neighboring areas boast a strong community of innovative, highly-talented engineering and scientific-minded professionals who are truly on the cutting edge of technology/science. We look forward to strengthening and growing our current partnerships in the region."
