LOS ANGELES, CA , UNITED STATES, August 10, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Inspiring. Informative. Raw. Indiana author, Dion Smith, Sr., promised such a book which aptly details his life-turnaround. He delivered. Life and Times of Dasism Lord by Dion Smith Sr., was recently released, his publicist announced today.

After seeing his brother murdered when he was 15-years-old, and experiencing things many can neither comfortably imagine nor speak of, Dion Smith, Sr., sorts through lingering trauma and a corrupt nature to go from illicit, to legal. Escaping a perilous lifestyle with his ethics and freedom in tact, he sets out to reach, teach, and motivate others to create their best lives. Smith Sr., gave a straightforward synopsis of his work.

"In the book, I share about the many trials and tribulations that I had to overcome to be the person people see today," explained Smith Sr. "I want people to see that they can go from wherever they have been, and be successful at whatever they want to do. Success comes in many forms and none of them have to be illegal."

The novel is based on Dion's riveting, true life experiences. All are extremely relevant in today's America and abroad," stated Fran Briggs, Publicist to Dion Smith Sr. "Anyone willing to experience the 360 degree, turnaround told by a young man with raw, uncensored, truth, will enjoy this exciting story."

"My life leaps off the page. This is a picture painted with words. You can see, hear, and feel the energy of many emotions," says Smith, Jr. "Readers will discover how a thug and drug dealer transforms into a motivational speaker, professor, businessman, and then learn from the lessons."
