Author Shares Life's Moments Mirrored in a Dance

NAPLES, FL, UNITED STATES, August 10, 2018
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Author Jan Carol book "The Dance of Life", will allow readers to reshape one's approach to life.

The book makes readers find will in the midst of life's choices to fulfill dreams and ambitions.

A true love story of young love to old age, tracing life's twist and turns, emotional battles, regrets to choices.

The most honest account of the true events of life, which will compel you to think about your choices and who you want to be. This book also made the author realize the strengths in her relationship towards her husband Jim.

Reading this book will make people want to pursue their dreams and love again, fearlessly, like a dance the rhythms and steps will help readers glide in life.

Jan Carol's narratives illuminate all of our continual struggles with life choices and truly this book is honest, smart, grounded, wise, well-written and highly-recommended book.

About the Author:

Jan Carol was born in Detroit, Michigan, and moved with her family to Connecticut when she was five years old. She always wanted to be a nurse from a very young age, and never strayed from that ambition. She dreamed of getting married, raising several children, and living happily ever after. Obviously, nothing is as easy as it sounds to a child. But, after meeting her true love at the age of twelve, she never forgot him. Jan has worked in the nursing profession in one capacity or another since old enough to hold a job, and continues to this day. She has degrees in nursing and hospital and healthcare management, and is a Certified Legal Nurse Consultant. Her wonderful husband, Jim, resides in a skilled nursing facility in Naples, Florida where she visits almost daily. She, her son, Jim, and her chocolate poodle Godiva, also live in Naples, Florida. Jan wants all who read her book to be true to themselves, and never give up on your dreams. Sometimes, they do come true.
