"I'm immensely proud. Matthew captures the essence of giving back to others."

A zealous WrestleMania fan, Matthew Maschler, Esq., a top-producing broker-associate of The Signature Real Estate Companies, has embraced his personal renaissance working hard on his competitive dance routine for the September 14 Boca's Ballroom Challenge 2018 at the pristine and magical Boca Raton Resort & Club, surrounded by 800-plus guests and a judges' panel.

"If you ever spent more than five minutes with me, you know how strongly I feel about giving back, paying it forward and supporting a good cause. Some of my friends have danced in this BATTLE before, and I was so impressed and inspired by their efforts that I had to seize this opportunity to help," says Maschler.

The George Snow Scholarship Fund, a Boca Raton-based 501(c)(3) public charity, provides educational grants to some of our area's brightest and most-deserving young scholars through four-year commitments, bridging financial gaps posed by higher education. To date, the fund has propelled the educational opportunities and lives of more than 1,800 South Floridians.

Broker-President of The Signature Real Estate Companies, Ben G. Schachter heads up Signature Gives Back, a volunteer organization specifically designed to capture the altruistic community involvement of the entire Signature Family. With Co-Chairs Jack Jaiven and Wendy Pressner, the SGB Board of Directors, and a large company following, the people of Signature have quickly become agents to "Be the Change You Wish to See in This World."
