

DBS Rugby Tours becomes a preferred travel partner of the National Small Colleges Rugby Organization

DUBLIN , LEINSTER, IRELAND , August 13, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- DBS Rugby Tours is pleased to announce a partnership with the National Small College Rugby Organization (NSCRO), located in the United States.

This partnership with NSCRO provides an opportunity for DBS Rugby Tours to expand their US partnerships and offer NSCRO's nearly 400 men's and women's collegiate rugby clubs access to "invite only" rugby tournaments, exclusive coaching camps in the United States, and coach education clinics both in the USA & in Europe. For NSCRO, this offers their student-athletes and coaches an opportunity to further develop rugby skills and learn from coaches who represent some of the top European rugby academies, as well as other professional teams.

"NSCRO is excited to be working with DBS Rugby Tours in providing opportunities for our schools to experience the benefits of international rugby tours both on and off the pitch," NSCRO President, Stephen Cohen offered.

"DBS Rugby Tours was set up with the vision of giving all players the opportunity to experience what it is like to be a professional rugby player. We are delighted to be partnering with NSCRO as we see a real symmetry between their goals for their players and our offering as a tour provider," said Conor Banahan, Head of Rugby of DBS Rugby Tours.

About National Small College Rugby Organization

Since 2007, the National Small College Rugby Organization (NSCRO) has been at the forefront of fostering and developing small college rugby programs in the United States. NSCRO is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing services to small college programs that raise the profile, image, and benefits of collegiate rugby in the eyes of school administrators.

Comprised of nearly 400 men's and women's college rugby clubs who participate in more than 30 leagues, NSCRO provides an opportunity for these programs to showcase their abilities to a broader audience with a chance at a national title and ranking. Along with recognizing club and player success on and off the field, the increased visibility NSCRO creates has led to improved school support, greater on-campus interest in rugby, and growth in financial support and alumni involvement.
