

The SafeCare Group Announces the Addition of New Board Member

Veteran healthcare leader Ray Montgomery joins The SafeCare Group board

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY, USA, August 14, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The SafeCare Group® today announced the appointment of veteran healthcare leader and retired Unity Health President and CEO Ray Montgomery II, MBA, FACHE to its Board of Advisors.

“Ray is a pioneer in the healthcare industry and we are delighted to welcome him to The SafeCare Group board,” said Yisrael Safeek, MD, MBA, The SafeCare Group President and CEO. “He is a nationally recognized healthcare leader, and we believe his strong experience, especially on national hospital boards, will be extremely valuable as The SafeCare Group continues to grow and achieve our potential as a healthcare software company.”

About Ray Montgomery

Mr. Montgomery served on the board of the American Hospital Association and served as chairman of the Regional Policy Board 7 from 2010-2012, and on the Arkansas Hospital Association Board for more than 17 years. He is currently the AHA representative on the Arkansas Foundation for Medical Care and the Arkansas Center for Health Improvement boards of directors. For close to 30 years, Mr. Montgomery led his healthcare system through extensive facility improvements, facilitated a major rebranding, which included a name change to Unity Health, the acquisition of hospitals and the building of a Cancer Center of Excellence. During his leadership, Unity Health earned the honor of the Arkansas Governor’s Quality Award twice, and he is a past recipient of the A. Allen Weintraub Memorial Award, the highest honor given by the Arkansas Hospital Association for a hospital executive. In 2014, the Arkansas Hospital Association named him its Grassroots Champion.
