

Orange County Fair Exhibit Featured Susan and James Irvine Wedding - Founding family of Orange County

IRVINE, CALIFORNIA, US, August 15, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Orange County Fair in Costa Mesa, California displayed an exhibit of Susan and James Irvine wedding items from July 13 – August 12, 2018. The OC Fair is one of the Top 10 fair's in the nation and reported a record-breaking attendance of 1.47 million visitors over the fair's 23-day run.

Orange County Register posted a photo of the Irvine Wedding fair exhibit and reporter Heather McRea stated, "James Irvine came from THAT Orange County family!"

James Irvine is the grandson to the late James Irvine II and founding family of Orange County, California. Susan Jeske is the CEO of the Ms. America Pageant Corporation and former Ms. America 1997. They were married on June 2, 2018 at the Irvine Ranch Historic Park, which is where the original Irvine family home was and where James was born and raised in the home as a young boy.

Jim and I love the OC Fair and attend every year! It was a honor to have our wedding items as a featured exhibit this year”

“Jim and I love the OC Fair and attend every year! It was an honor to have our wedding items as a featured exhibit this year,” said the new Mrs. James Irvine.

In the OC Promenade Building at the Fair, Susan’s wedding gown created by Stephen Yearick that took 2 years to make and weighed 3 pounds was proudly displayed and received a lot of attention. On display in the glass case was a replica of her ring, the Irvine Rose Tiara, Earrings by Carolina Herrera, Brooch Bouquet by JoAnne Turner, Marc Defang shoes and purse, hand-made Invitations and Thank You Cards by My Luxe Wedding, champagne flutes, ring bearer pillow and illustrations. By the OC Promenade Stage, a replica of the 15-tiered Irvine Wedding Cake created by Sunshines Cakes and Guest Table created by Stephanie’s Linens and floral arrangement replica by White Sakuras was also on display.

The gown and wedding display will be taken down where the happy couple will have official portraits taken in their wedding attire by world renowned Bradford Photography and award winning Daniel Pham Photography.

In October, the exhibit will then be displayed in a museum in Orange County, California.
