

Personal Injury attorney Sarah Cox starts legal blog and commentary on Personal Injury matters

The Blog provides information on legal developments and commentary on personal injury law

FORT MYERS, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, August 14, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Law Office of Sarah Cox & Associates, LLC announced today that principal attorney Sarah Cox is setting up a new legal blog <https://SarahECoxBlog.blogspot.com/> which will focus primarily on Personal Injury Law, and how the law is changing.

"With all the recent news and misinformation regarding Personal Injury matters, I felt that I could help explain the truths behind the real issues at hand" said Attorney Sarah Cox. "I have a decade of experience working in this area, and can help people understand the issues, and obtain initial information when they need legal help."

Personal Injury law encompasses a broad range of legal matters, such as slip-and-fall actions, vehicle accidents, boating accidents, and even dog bites. Generally, one must show that another person was careless or negligent, and that such carelessness caused the injury. Also, one has to remember that the time to file such an action is generally four years in Florida ("Statute of Limitations").

... of course, if you have been injured, you will need specific legal advice based on the circumstances of your case ..."

Sarah Ellen Cox, Personal Injury Lawyer

Thus, a person as four years from the date of the accident to file a lawsuit in Florida courts (Florida Statutes Annotated Section 95.11(3)).

Adds Ms. Cox, "if you have an injured, you should also know that in Florida, most personal injury lawyers will accept cases on a 'contingency basis.' This means that if you lose your case, you pay the attorney nothing. The attorney does not charge up front, but will take a percentage of the proceeds from the case, from a settlement or court judgment."
