

List Self Storage Brings Innovative Technology to Self Storage Association's Fall Conference

National electronic listing service streamlines the buying and selling of self-storage properties

FARMINGTON HILLS, MICHIGAN, UNITED STATES, August 15, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- List Self Storage (LSS), a national platform for buying and selling self-storage facilities, is pleased to announce its exhibition at the Self Storage Association (SSA) 2018 Fall Conference & Trade Show. The annual gathering will take place September 4 – 7, 2018 at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas, NV.

List Self Storage was founded in 2015 as a component of the Storage Business Owners Alliance (SBOA) to fill a void in the marketplace for a self storage-focused electronic property listing service. There are currently more than 260 self storage properties listed on the List Self Storage platform by brokers from all over the country.

“ListSelfStorage.com has received a remarkable response in the nearly four years since its launch,” said List Self Storage President Theresa Gallas. “The SSA conference is another opportunity for us to demonstrate the technology offered to those buying and selling self storage properties. Our goal is to streamline the process by providing access to listings for sale, vendors, tools and resources needed to transact,” Gallas added.
