Marking the 72nd Independence Day of the nation, Dukes India distributed its products to students at Army Schools across the nation.

HYDERABAD, TELANGANA, INDIA, August 16, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Marking the 72nd Independence Day of the nation, Dukes India distributed its range of products to students at Army Schools across the country. Spreading the message of patriotism by honouring the Soldiers for their invaluable sacrifice for the nation, Dukes products were distributed to students at the Army schools across the country which included Army schools at Kamraj Road, Ballygunge, Narangi, Lucknow, APS Ahmedabad Cantt, and Thane district.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Ravinder Agarwal, MD, Ravi Foods Private Ltd., hailed the superheroes in our real life. "Every Indian sleeps peacefully because of the Indian Soldiers who guard our frontiers in the most difficult and challenging terrain round the clock. I salute the brave hearts from the bottom of my heart. At Dukes, we believe that at a young age this respect for the Indian Army needs to be instilled in children of our nation. This initiative of ours aims at doing so."

Mr. Ravinder Kumar Agarwal, Managing Director of Ravi Foods

Distributing gifts at Army School, Ahmedabad.

"Distributing Dukes products to the children at Army School is a small gesture of gratitude to the school's management who are grooming these children today to become tomorrow's heroes. The students are trained to be disciplined and responsible soldiers and citizens of the future. It's a privilege to have undertaken this initiative."

The Independence Day celebrations are an integral part of India's culture since it was the day India earned its freedom. On this day, students participate in various activities organized in schools including debates, poetry, and drawing competition. This initiative by Dukes is unique and first of its kind by any confectionary or biscuits major in India.
