

One Stop Bedwetting Launches Expanded Redesigned Website Providing Unprecedented Access to Bedwetting Solutions

One Stop Bedwetting, a leading provider of bedwetting alarms has launched a revolutionary new website making it easier to shop for incontinence solutions.

SANTA CLARA, CA, USA, August 16, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- One Stop Bedwetting, a leading provider of bedwetting alarm, waterproof mattress pads, vibrating watches and incontinence products, announced today the launch of its new, redesigned responsive website – <https://onestopbedwetting.com/>. The new website will expand the One Stop Bedwetting portfolio of bedwetting solutions and enhanced customer support. It also captures the corporate values of the company and its achievements with the use of live customer chat and product videos.

The website redesign includes aesthetic enhancements to provide a more engaging user experience and enhanced navigation to help visitors easily find the information they need. Customers can browse the large selection of products, and subscribe to a biweekly bedwetting blog and get discount coupons and promotions delivered in their inbox. The site features a brand new resource center specially written by bedwetting specialists to provide visitors with exclusive enhanced content and gives them a better understanding of the bedwetting, its treatment and solutions. The collection of articles is especially targeted to educate the millions of individuals who suffer from nocturnal enuresis. Visitors get handy practical tips for dealing with bedwetting and will have the opportunity to watch on demand videos, download user manuals and exchange emails with specialists. The website has a new section devoted to product reviews and testimonials for visitors to read and share opinions and make the right choice selecting a bedwetting alarm. The company also announced that effective immediately, all domestic customers will get free shipping on purchase of any bedwetting alarm and bedwetting kits and avail unlimited access to bedwetting specialists. Customers can save up to 25% on already low prices of select bedwetting kits when ordered online.

According to a company spokesperson, "We are thrilled and proud to debut our new company website to our customers, doctors, partners and visitors who are looking to understand our products and services. This website redesign is truly another way we are committed to creating the best possible experience for our customers. We are certain that the redesign will reinforce One Stop Bedwetting as a leading provider of bedwetting alarms, waterproof mattress pads and bedwetting solutions. With the new design, we expect an increase in website visitors and content consumption. We look forward to feedback and the exciting new developments to come."

The company's award winning products are widely recommended by pediatricians to stop nighttime bedwetting. The website features a complete assortment of wearable and bedside bedwetting alarms from popular brands including Chummie, Smart, Shield, Guardian, NewU and Zest, waterproof mattress pads from Prisma and potty training solutions from Joy. "One of the many exciting new website features launched in early August was multi-currency order processing. This will be particularly beneficial for our large number of international customers who will not only be able to view product prices in their own currency but will also be able to pay using their local credit/debit cards without having to convert to US dollars.

International customers will not be charged a currency exchange fee and the price they see is exactly the price they pay! Shipping costs and delivery times are calculated dynamically at the time of checkout.” said a company representative.

The revamped website also features an updated look with enhanced features, including easier navigation, product search, improved overall usability, updated information and a much requested bedwetting alarm finder tool. Designed by specialists, the alarm finder tool eliminates the confusion visitors often experience shopping for a bedwetting alarm. Visitors answer a few quick questions related to their sleeping habits and gender and the tool presents the right bedwetting alarm. Visitors are encouraged to explore the new website and sign up for the One Stop Bedwetting mailing list to receive direct emails and discount coupons.
