“Without exercising due diligence with background checks, employers risk hiring workers with an unsuitable criminal record or falsified credentials that can result in a legal and financial nightmare,” explains Rosen, the author of ‘The Safe Hiring Manual.’ “However, the screening process has become more complicated due to federal and state legislation, litigation, and regulation.”

During the session – which is number 6311 and lasts from 3:45 PM to 4:45 PM PT – Rosen will discuss cutting-edge issues such as the use of social media for screening, fast-spreading “Ban the Box” laws, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) approach to the use of criminal records, and how to avoid class action lawsuits for alleged violations of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA).

Formerly the ASIS Annual Seminar and Exhibits, the 2018 Global Security Exchange (GSX) will take place from September 23 to 27, 2018. GSX is a global event with more than 22,000 security professionals attending from over 100 countries to explore the latest security solutions from more than 550 exhibitors and shape their security strategy in over 300 sessions.
