Author Introduces Ella S. Pluck To The Younger Audience!

WILLARD, MISSOURI, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, August 20, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Do you recall the children's books that changed your kid's life? What about the Christmas stories that your family enjoyed? Author Nanette Crighton writes another story, a new favorite that would pour into the hearts of the children and give a lesson about conquering fear – The Christmas Spryte Encounter: Picture with Santa.

The Christmas Spryte Encounter: Picture with Santa introduces the character of a young boy who encounters a dilemma each year, as he must get his picture taken with Santa. The growing uneasiness of the boy triggers a tiny elf to pay him a visit. Ella S. Pluck comes to rescue the boy and helps him conquer his fear. She extends help by giving the boy a list of things that he can do to divert his attention to reduce his anxiety. In return, the boy gets a valuable present from Ella if he focuses and thinks of her. The name "Pluck" suits Ella as she shows how she can effectively take away the boy's fear.

Dr. Crighton's new book teaches the younger audience that fear has no hold over anyone and that parents need to understand that they play Ella S. Pluck's part in the lives of their children. Everyone is invited to a magical reading, a sensible journey of having enough courage to overcome fear. Another must-read source by Dr. Crighton!

About the Author:

Dr. M. Nanette Crighton often ends up in charge without intentionally seeking a position of leadership. Her big-picture thinking, endearing qualities and willingness to set an example simply compel others to follow.

"I can delegate tasks making people feel empowered rather than imposed upon," says Crighton, the medical director and owner of Crighton Aesthetic Studio. "I make a point to recognize contributions by others in a genuine way, and I make certain that I do my share of the least favorable job."
