

JAMAICA EXPERIENCES SUBSTANTIAL SURGE IN POPULARITY

There has never been a better time to visit Jamaica

NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, August 20, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Leading luxury villa rental company Exceptional Villas is predicting that 2019 will be an excellent year for tourism to Jamaica. All the key industry indicators and year on year advance booking metrics are showing that Jamaica is showing a substantial increase in advance bookings.

Alexandra Baradi, Owner, and CEO of Exceptional Villas said that "guests on the beautiful tropical island have never felt safer". Since the beginning of the year, the crime rate has decreased dramatically. Local Jamaicans and the expat community are very happy with the present state of affairs. Montego Bay and its environs are quiet and more peaceful than in the last 15 years. There are reports of people walking to work as they have never done. Tourists are carrying on as usual.

Hospitality Leaders are reporting that guests on the island are not afraid and excursions are up compared to previous years. New biking and walking tours have become popular as a result of the peaceful conditions. Clients who were concerned and asked for security prior to arrival, have canceled the security within 12 hours of being on the island. Our guests are reporting no issues, and they all feel safe & comfortable. The massive reduction in crime since January 2018 is 70% across the board. The State of Emergency put in place last January was only aimed at the city areas that had the highest crime rate. All tourist areas, residential and villa areas are free of crime. The rate of crime against a tourist is recorded at 0.006% annually.

rentals. Most luxury villas in Jamaica include chefs, butlers, and housekeepers. The island has more repeat business than any other island in the region and this is primarily due to the friendliness of the local people and their ability to make guests to the island feel very special.
