

Life Coach Java Collins to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

TULSA, OKLAHOMA, UNITED STATES, August 21, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In Jeremiah 29:11, God says "I know the plans I have for you." It's so easy to blame God instead of embracing Him. The weight takes us hostage, blinds us to our purpose, our passion, our identity, and causes us to struggle even more.

But here's the beauty of God: God is omnipresent. He is everywhere. You don't have to build the bridge to meet Him. You need only cross it and He will meet you where you are.

Java Collins is a life coach, speaker, educator, and an "intentional" woman of God. Java helps people navigate the changes that arise as we move through different levels of our spirituality.

"My passion is getting people on track for wholeness: whole in spirit, soul, and body," says Java. "I know what it's like to be caught in that state, spiritually and mentally, of not knowing where you belong. I understand the challenges. My goal is to get people to be transparent with themselves. Admit your failures, your doubts, admit that you have struggles, concerns and fears. You've got to be a yielded vessel to be a good steward of the gift God has given you."

Java's approach to healing is that God took her greatest shame and anointed her to minister to others in the very areas she had been hurt in.

"The areas that I've been healed allows me to identify with them," says Java. "We're going to go through the process of stripping away the old lies. It's hard. It will produce raw feelings. You're going to go through some emotions you never knew existed in your soul, but it's crucial that we replace them with the truth, and it's the truth about what God believes about you. We've got to fill you up with God's truth so we can stand secure in His word and in His love.

Java says the more of God we take on, the more He takes us to another level, another depth of who He is, and He allows us to incorporate that into our bodies, our spirit and our souls.

"I am most proud of being alive and knowing that God loves me unconditionally," says Java. "My identity is so wrapped in Him now, we're in a partnership life. He has healed my broken heart and breathed life back into me. He can do the same for you."

CUTV News Radio will feature Java Collins in an interview with Jim Masters on August 23rd at 3pm EDT.
