

Enterprise Holdings Attorney Pleads with Lee Court to Excuse CEO Pamela M Nicholson from Testifying in Theft Trial

Judge Archie B. Hayward Jr. will ultimately rule if Enterprise Holdings CEO Nicholson must travel to Fort Myers courtroom and testify in grand theft hearing

FORT MYERS, FL, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, August 21, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SubscriberWise, the nation's largest issuing CRA for the communications industry and the leading protector of children victimized by identity fraud announced today the eleventh-hour 'DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO QUASH TRIAL WITNESS SUBPOENA OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR ENTRY OF PROTECTIVE ORDER.' The motion desperately seeks to keep Enterprise Holdings CEO Pamela M. Nicholson from direct examination of Pro Se Plaintiff and crime victim David Howe.

“Wow, I wish all victims of a ‘ding and dent’ scam could have the privileges afforded to a CEO who earns north of $100,000.00 in WEEKLY pay compensation,” said David Howe, National Car Rental ‘ding and dent’ fraud victim. “But, who said life was fair...”

These companies operate on compelling customers into paying for damages they did not cause, and anyone facing this rental car damage scam should be aware that help is available”

“Admittedly, though, I do want the CEO to understand what it’s like when a company – namely Enterprise Holdings’ National Car Rental – sends an innocent individual on a wild-goose chase and without travel compensation or other consideration for time and schedule. And that’s one of the reasons I sent the subpoena. Because that’s exactly what the company did to me. Frankly, I wanted the CEO to, perhaps, understand personally how the organization’s predatory – and in my case, criminal – behavior harms consumers. Profound harms consumers to be more precise.

“Yes, life certainly is not fair,” the crime victim pondered.

"Hopefully, Judge Hayward will agree with the crime victim and make the CEO appear and testify. But if he does not for any reason, I will honor and respect the court's decision," victim Howe concluded.
