“Our slate of women is the most highly qualified and diverse Georgia has ever seen,” said Anna Beck, WIN List

Board Chair. "We are thrilled to bring most of these courageous women under one roof for an evening of celebration and support. During the evening, WIN List will present checks which total the most generous candidate contributions of our 18-year history. Having women at the top of the Democratic ticket together with a record-setting number of diverse legislative candidates who more closely represent the citizens of the districts they hope to represent fulfills the two-decade-old dream of our visionary founders to 'Change the Face of Power In Georgia'."

Beck says the 2018 election cycle is a historic opportunity for women to make huge strides towards equality of representation in the "rooms where it happens" under Georgia's Gold Dome. "We know all who attend will be energized to become a part of the grassroots efforts creating Georgia's Blue Wave in November," she said. "We Believe women will WIN in record-setting numbers in November."
