In less than a year he began work on his second album, The Tea Dance. The 1977 concept album captured the essence and feel of a Broadway show and featured notable background singers; Lani Groves & Sharon Redd. It also included a duet with 1960s rock/pop icon Lou Christie on "Don't Keep It In The Shadows." The tracks: "Face Of Love," "Overture," "O Ba Ba (No Reino Da Mae Do Ouro)", "Indiscreet" and "Don't Keep It In The Shadows" would all chart at #2 on "Billboard's Dance Music Club Play Singles" chart.
