

The Dangerous Dimension - L. Ron Hubbard's First Sci-Fi Story Debut at the Scientology Information Center

Actors reenact L. Ron Hubbard's Pulp Fiction Story in the tradition of 30's/40's radio-style theater.

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, USA, August 23, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Saturday August 18th the L. Ron Hubbard East Coast Theatre brought The Dangerous Dimension - L. Ron Hubbard's first science fiction story -to life at the Scientology Information Center. The performance was once again "standing-room-only" for fans of dramatic readings and radio-style literary entertainment.

Guests enjoyed complimentary refreshments. Ms. Joanie Sigal, the theatre's producer and narrator, performed a short set of jazz-like blues songs from the pulp fiction era of the 30's and 40's.

The performers brought to life the humorous, scientific story of Dr. Henry Mudge being thrown back and forth across the galaxy with a single thought. Special lighting, sound effects and minimal props accompanied by their dramatic acting kept the audience captivated.

It takes you back 80 years to the topsy-turvy 1930's."

The audience laughed throughout the performance watching "Dr. Mudge's" antics and the show ended with a standing ovation. One guest said, "It was the best performance yet! Another, "It takes you back 80 years to the topsy-turvy 1930's;" and yet another guest's comment, "Mr. Hubbard really had an imagination!"

The L. Ron Hubbard East Coast Theatre is a volunteer group founded in 2011. Their shows combine actors, costumes and sound effects, bringing the exciting pulp-fiction stories by L. Ron Hubbard to life.

L. Ron Hubbard was among the most prolific and popular writers through the Golden Age of Pulp Fiction. Indeed, between 1934 and 1940, some 140 L. Ron Hubbard tales appeared in the pages of legendary pulp magazines—with as many as three titles an issue and bylined under some fifteen pen names. With 19 New York Times bestsellers and more than 350 million copies of his works in circulation, Mr. Hubbard is among the most acclaimed and widely read authors of

“This venue is very unique. It provides educational information on Scientology and it’s also a gathering place for community meetings and events such as this one,” said Amber Skjelset, Manager of the Center and event organizer. “Their next theatre performance will be a spooky Western, Shadows from Boot Hill on October 26th - just before Halloween.”

The Center itself is open seven days a week, from 10am to 10pm.
