Gurugram, 15th August 2018: 100% FDI funded real estate company, Experion Developers celebrated the 72nd Independence Day of India with great joy and zeal at its 100-acre township, Westerlies, sector 108, Gurugram. A special flag hoisting of 100 ft. tall Indian flag saw active participation of residents, community leaders, children and senior citizens. The event demonstrated patriotic fervor of the newly developing and thriving community of sector 108.

Paying tribute to the significance of this day and celebrating solidarity within the community members, Experion extended an open invitation to the residents of its projects and to the residents in the vicinity. As a gesture of respect and honor senior members of the gathering were invited to hoist the flag. The ceremony was followed by traditional Kite flying competition - an expression that demonstrates the feeling of liberation & freedom and host of other cultural activities.

Speaking on the occasion Mr. Rakesh Kaul, CEO, Experion Developers said, “Being citizens of a free country is the matter of pride for all of us. It is important that we remind ourselves of the value of freedom. While we rejoice and take pride in being an Indian, I urge you to take a pledge of being a responsible and respectful citizen of our beautiful country.”

Westerlies is an upcoming township that offers a majestic eco-system conceived to live holistically. Spread over 100 acres of the green boulevard, the township offers amenities for fuller and richer lives.
