BOSTON, MASS., US, August 24, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- RAIN Group, a global sales training and performance improvement company, announced its offering complimentary Extreme Productivity Assessments until September 7.

Professionals can take the 10-minute assessment to uncover ways to maximize their motivation, take back control of their TIME, and execute in the zone to get the most done every day.

“The assessment measures 36 productivity behaviors and how they affect performance. It pinpoints the best areas for driving increased productivity and results for professionals in all industries,” said Mike Schultz, president at RAIN Group.

The assessment results will reveal:

- How you measure up against The 9 Habits of Extreme Productivity
- The specific areas where you should focus to improve your productivity starting today
- How much time you can gain each day by implementing the extreme productivity habits
- Quick tips for what to do to immediately improve your productivity

Schultz continued, “People today are more distracted than ever. They’re getting pulled into other people’s priorities, leaving little time for their own. Taking this assessment is the first step to pursuing extreme productivity.”

Take the complimentary assessment before September 7 to unlock eye-opening facts about yourself that will change the way you work and live.
