

Local Government Industry Veteran Joins Envisio as Vice President of Customer Success

Kevin Knutson joins Envisio Solutions as the newest member of the leadership team.

RICHMOND, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, August 28, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Envisio Solutions Inc. is excited to announce that Kevin Knutson is joining the company in the role of Vice President of Customer Success. Kevin will lead all customer engagement and success activities across the business and be a key member of the Envisio Leadership Team.

“I am very excited to join the team during this time of growth. Envisio solves one of the most difficult challenges of deploying strategy—aligning everyone’s efforts with priorities and intended outcomes. I look forward to working with cities to help them be more effective at executing strategy and managing performance through Envisio,” says Kevin.

Kevin Knutson

Kevin brings more than twenty years of experience in local government, including ten years in strategic planning, budget, performance measurement, and process improvement; and six years in community relations, communications, and citizen engagement. Kevin was part of a team that implemented quality management practices in Coral Springs that led to the City being the first local government to earn the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality

Award. He also served as Interim City Manager, Assistant City Manager, Director of the Office of Management and Budget, and Director of Community Relations in Reno, Nevada; and as Director of Communications and Marketing and budget and strategic planning manager for Coral Springs, Florida.

Prior to joining Envisio, Kevin was the Regional Vice President for Management Partners, a local government management consulting firm. He is recognized as a national expert and has led 202 projects for 124 different cities and counties.

“Envisio is delighted to add someone of Kevin’s calibre to our leadership team. His extensive experience in local government enhances our commitment to providing this sector with the ‘best in class’ products and services,” says Mike Bell, CEO of Envisio.
