

Rudy L Kusuma Home Selling Team Commits to Improving People's Lives through Involvement and Giving Back to the Community

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, August 27, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rudy L Kusuma Home Selling Team is well-known and trusted real estate company committed to assisting clients when selling or buying properties. But more than just being a typical real estate company, the team also aims to elevate people's lives. These people are their clients, team members, vendor partners, and the community.

The company believes in giving back to the communities by donating a part of their every successful business transaction to non-profit organizations closest to their heart. These are the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals, World Harvest, and Susan G. Komen Home for the Cure.

This program that focuses on giving back to the community is known as Beyond Real Estate. One of the recipients of this program is the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals. Real estate clients are therefore encouraged to list their homes with TEAM NUVISION because they can take part in this program designed for a worthy cause.

The TEAM NUVISION will give contributions to Children's Miracle Network Hospitals which is known to help kids and treat millions of children every year for different condition and disease imaginable. The team will support their mission by means of raising $100,000 this year. By listing home with the team, individuals do not just receive the best possible service but are also help children in the community.

The Beyond Real Estate also includes Sponsor a Child Program. Under such program, donation under a particular person's name helps sponsor a child for a year. Donations given to World Harvest positively impacts the lives of children for the fact that they are given reliable means to access the right nutritional supplementation, the right medical care, and the much-needed education. A portion of the donations will also go to communal funds which sponsor programs like anti-mosquito operations, tutoring, Communal Transformation Centers and more.

Another chosen non-profit organization that will receive a donation from the team is Susan G. Komen Home for the Cure. With the aim of helping fight breast cancer through Home for the Cure program, Susan G. Komen provides real-time help to those struggling from the disease. Since its inception in 1982, this program has already funded over $800 million in research and provided about $1.7 billion funds to treatment, screening, education as well as psychosocial support programs that serve millions of individuals in over 30 million countries all over the world.

The commitment of Rudy L Kusuma Home Selling Team to serve and give back to the community by donating part of their earnings is truly helping the community. They continue to serve the community by empowering and enhancing the lives of individuals especially those who needed funding, support, and care.

Congratulations on becoming a Miracle Agent for 2018!

On behalf of the 17 million children treated at Children's Miracle Network Hospitals each year, thank you for your generous donations so far this year.

Since 1992, RE/MAX Agents and Offices have raised more than $165 million for Children's Miracle Network Hospitals; you are helping to ensure that the finest medical care is available to children when they need it most. From broken bones to cancer treatments to heart transplants, Children's Miracle Network Hospitals are devoted to saving and improving the lives of children.

Children's Miracle Network Hospitals wants to recognize RE/MAX Agents and Offices each year, for their support of children's hospitals.

On behalf of everyone at Children's Miracle Network Hospitals and the millions of children who benefit from your efforts, I would like to say thank you! Your energy, generosity and dedication are an inspiration to all of us.
