

New York AG Underwood disregarding massive sexual assault cover-ups within State agencies

As AG Underwood reaches out to state DA's to investigate Catholic Priest sex abuse, the same sex abuse cover-ups are in the state's mental health care system

ALBANY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, August 27, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Jonathan Carey Foundation has uncovered wide-scale rampant sexual assaults and rapes of primarily women and children with disabilities in known unsafe facilities and group homes. Although Barbara Underwood is fairly new to the job as the New York State Attorney General, all attempts by civil and disability rights advocate, Michael Carey, to have her immediately address the cover-ups of almost all sexual assault crimes have gone ignored. It's like the Catholic Church and the state agencies are no different. Seven certified or priority letters have gone to AG Underwood over the past few months by Carey and there has been no response or actions taken on her part to stop the criminal cover-ups of these sex crimes. Sexual predators and pedophile run wild within the state's mental health system and are walking our streets because they are not being prosecuted.

Governor Andrew Cuomo must be held accountable for protecting countless sexual predators, pedophiles and rapists

The state of New York and the Catholic Church are guilty as hell in this area and have/are covering up thousands of sex crimes to protect themselves and their systems.”

Michael Carey - Civil Rights & Disability Rights Advocate

County elected District Attorney's have the jurisdiction and authority to prosecute these sex crimes according to the New York State constitution, Article 13 Section 13, but they cannot do their job if the state hides and conceals these crimes from them. The state is not notifying the DA's of most of these sex crimes occurring within their counties. Governor Andrew Cuomo illegally set up a discriminatory practice of having a state employee appointed by himself to circumvent or bypass 62 county elected DA's so the state could easily cover-up almost all sex crimes committed within his own agencies. The state of New York and the Catholic Church are guilty as hell in this area and have/are covering up thousands of sex crimes to protect themselves and their systems. Time for swift federal investigations and for all involved, starting at the very top, to be indicted and prosecuted to the full extent of the law.
