

Country Music Legend Margie Singleton Hopes New Gospel Release Will Bring People To Jesus

The 82-year-old Atlanta Country Music Hall of Fame and Independent Country Music Hall of Fame singer-songwriter has released "Heaven Or Hell."

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES , September 4, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Earlier this year, at age 82, country music legend, Margie Singleton released her chart-topping single and video, "Jesus Is My Pusher." The video earned an LA Music Video Award, and Margie was inducted into the Atlanta Music Hall of Fame and the Independent Country Music Hall of Fame, proving that age, really is, only a number.

Now, one month before her 83rd birthday, Margie returns with her "Mighty Mission" from God...a new Country Gospel single and video, "Heaven Or Hell." The powerful new video, directed and edited by Kenny Harrison, pulls no punches, with its hellish scenes of fire and brimstone. Margie wrote the song after a conversation with her pastor, Kent Riddle:

I hope those who are not yet believers will hear it and come to Jesus while they still have time.”

"A couple of months ago, my associate pastor Brother Kent Riddle said he was planning a revival about the consequences of hell, and asked me to write a song about it," said Margie. "Well, I had to do some praying right there because that (to me) was a 'mighty mission.' I asked God to help me on this...and He sure did!! It came directly from Him! I wrote it down on paper, but God used me as His vessel and allowed me to record it for His will and purpose.

I hope you all will enjoy it, and I hope those who are not yet believers will hear it and come to Jesus while they still have time."
