

Catch the Fire Worship Flags is Changing How Praise Dancers will Travel with Worship Flags

Travel with Full-Size Multi-layer Worship Flags that are Designed to Fit into your Carry-on Luggage, Tote Bag, or Backpack so that You Can Worship Everywhere.

SURREY, BC, CANADA, September 6, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Catch the Fire Worship Flags' new Traveller Collection of praise & worship flags will help Praise Dancers express their deepest praise in colorful movement everywhere.

Andrea York, Owner and Designer of Catch the Fire Worship Flags, is releasing a brand new Traveller Collection which will revolutionize how Worshipers and Praise Dancers travel with worship flags. The Traveller Collection will be released on September 10, 2018.

The new collection of Worship Flags and poles are designed to travel with Worshipers, everywhere. They are created to allow Praise Dancers to add or remove the poles, with a special design feature to "hold" the pole in place while it's in use. Flags and poles are sold separately and will fit into carry-on luggage, a tote bag, or backpack. The interchangeable flagpoles is a cost saving because one pair of poles can be used with many travel worship flags.

Travel Worship Flags Fit Easily into a Carry-on Luggage

I've been working on the design for two years, and I'm delighted to offer Worshipers and Praise Dancers a way take worship flags anywhere, so you can worship everywhere.”

Andrea York

- * Worship everywhere
- * Poles and travel worship flags fit into your handbag, backpack, or carry-on suitcase
- * Flags & poles sold separately
- * Unique design to keep the interchangeable pole from slipping out of the pole pocket

Andrea York wears many hats. She attended Bible School in Austria, completed 'Women in Leadership' at A.C.T.S.Seminary and is a licensed Minister through the Christian Minister's Association of Canada. She is also a writer, speaker and teacher about spirituality and faith.

Andrea has always had a close relationship with color. She has the rare gift of synesthesia, a psychological phenomenon of intertwining color and sound. Andrea “sees” color for each sound. Throughout her life, she would see colors dancing on sound waves during worship. It was a natural fit to become Founder and Designer for Catch the Fire Worship Flags, an industry leader providing exceptional multi-layer angel wing worship flags for worshippers and Praise Dancers who express themselves in movement and color.

Andrea’s worship flags are among the best handmade worship flags available. Many worship flags break, rip, or tear. Andrea has fixed this problem and has perfected the design which will provide beautiful quality that will last for many years.

The Traveller Collection is expected to become Best Sellers and is available only on <https://catchthefireworshipflags.com>.

Travelling with worship flags has never been easier. Praise Dancers don’t have to sacrifice our signature style multi-layer worship flags. We worked with an engineer to design interchangeable poles that fit into your handbag, handbag or carry-on suitcase. Flags fold up and also fit into your travel bags.

CATCH THE FIRE WORSHIP FLAGS

Catch the Fire Worship Flags began as a hobby business in 2011 to provide for charitable organizations around the world. The business continues to grow and expand but the primary value to support humanitarian ministries has not changed. Catch the Fire Worship Flags is currently working on a project in Uganda to open a vocational training school. The school will help marginalized men and women provide for their families.
