

5 Key Reasons to Attend Future Armoured Vehicles Survivability 2018

Smi reports: New for 2018, Future Armoured Vehicles Survivability has a specific focus on CBRN with exclusive briefings from the UK MoD and JPEO CBD

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, September 3, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi's 4th annual Future Armoured Vehicles Survivability conference and focus day will take place between the 13th and 15th November 2018, in London, UK. Unlike other broader armoured vehicle meetings, this is the only event dedicated to combat vehicle survivability.

The meeting is the perfect platform for operational users, capability development and industry to share current requirements and experience in platform modernisation, enhancement of active/passive protection, signature management, mobility, vehicle architectures, situational awareness, C-IED, C-UAS Protection, Materials and Sensor Technologies.

New for 2018, Future Armoured Vehicles Survivability has a specific focus on CBRN with exclusive briefings from the UK MoD and JPEO CBD.

For those wishing to join, SMi have released 5 key reasons to attend:

1. Attend an interactive Active Protection Systems (APS) focus day exploring the development and integration of hard/soft kill APS, as well as national updates on the development and integration of such platforms
2. 8+ Sponsors and Exhibitors showcasing the latest survivability technology: Frazer Nash Consultancy, Intracom Defense Electronic Systems, Lockheed Martin, Leonardo (GOLD), Raytheon, Rheinmetall Active Protection GMBH, Soucy Group, UTC Aerospace Systems and more!
3. 30+ Top-Level Speakers from the Military, Research and Industry: Austrian MoD, British Army, Canadian Armed Forces, FFI, Frazer-Nash Consultancy Ltd., General Dynamics European Land Systems-Mowag, General Dynamics UK Limited, German MoD, Intracom Defense Electronic Systems, Israeli MoD, JPEO CBD, KMW, Leonardo, Lockheed Martin, Raytheon, Rheinmetall Active
