

Real Estate Attorney William B Blanchard announces special discount for those who serve or served our Country

Bill Blanchard offers special discount for real estate legal services to USAA members, veterans, active duty, police, fire fighters, and senior citizens.

ST. CHARLES, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, September 4, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Real Estate Attorney William B Blanchard announced that beginning immediately he will offer a special discount for those who have served the country. "We would like to honor those who serve or served (USAA members, veterans, active duty, police, firefighters, and senior citizens) with a reduced rate of one half the usual fee," says Bill Blanchard.

Bill states, "I have great respect and admiration for those who wear the uniform and keep us safe. These men and women are this country's unsung heroes and I want to give back to them for all the sacrifices they have made in order to keep us safe. Therefore, I am offering a reduced rate of my fees. A $500 fee will be reduced to $250 beginning immediately and continuing at least to the end of the year." He went on to add "my wife and I just feel the passion to help others. Several years ago, Judy and I started the Foundation for the Support of Chemical Dependency Recovery Programs, we feel so blessed that we wish to pass that on to others."

William B. Blanchard, Real Estate Attorney

Bill and his wife of 51 years, Judy, were the founders and major contributors of the Foundation for Support of Chemical Dependency Recovery Programs. During their several years of support they provided shelter and treatment for substance addicted adolescents in Illinois, Texas, Georgia and California. Young people benefitting from their generosity included teens from the inner city to children of Hollywood stars. Recently they provided below market rental housing for drug dependent single mothers with children sponsored by Catholic Charities and Cornerstone Services.
