

GatedTalent Announces Wider Executive Recruiter Access Amid Rapid Growth in Executive Membership

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, September 4, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GatedTalent, the platform connecting senior executives with leading executive recruiters globally, is delighted to announce major landmarks in terms of both executive profile growth and executive recruiter access.

The GatedTalent platform contains biographical and aspirational information of senior executives, with the profiles created and maintained by the executives themselves. The company is delighted to report a significant increase in member profile creation, with August being the best month for new platform registrations, delivering an increase of more than 50% in newly created profiles when compared to our previous best month. GatedTalent is currently receiving well over 1,000 new registrations each week.

Furthermore, GatedTalent's membership pool is highly diverse, with executives registered from more than 100 nations, with the United States being the largest single source of registrations.

GatedTalent is also delighted to announce that, while users of the FileFinder Executive Search CRM will continue to benefit from unique integration with the platform, the GatedTalent search functionality will now be made available to the wider Executive Search community.

Jason Starr, CEO of GatedTalent's parent company Dillistone Group Plc, commented: "With well over a thousand new executives joining our community every week, we believe that GatedTalent represents the fastest growing and most up to date platform of its type. We are delighted to make it available to a wider executive recruiting audience – something that will benefit our executives and, I'm sure, lead to further acceleration in membership. However, only FileFinder clients will be able to take full advantage of the platform, and will also benefit from preferential commercial options.”
