

Kimlin Johnson, Lauded Author & Civil Rights Activist, Reveals— Top 10 African Heroes that Continue Changing the World

In an effort to apprise her audience, Johnson is honoring the African heroes that paved the way in our nation's history, past and present.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 4, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Acclaimed author of Authenticity, Accountability & Ambitions: Speaking the Truth Through a Black Woman's Eyes (AAA), and Civil Rights activist, Kimlin Charise Johnson, continues enlightening her audience by reminding us of the top 10 African heroes that continue changing the world.

Part history, part memoir and part self-help, AAA is designed to enlighten its readers on racism and ridicule in the 21st Century, years after the monumental Civil Rights movement.

"AAA is a call to action, but more importantly, it seeks to discuss how Blacks treat each other and how to resolve this issue," Johnson shares. "The book also features a myriad of ways that Black Americans can empower each other and themselves."

In an effort to apprise her audience, Johnson is honoring the African heroes that paved the way in our nation's history and who are still continuing to carve new paths today.

Top 10 African Heroes

1. Reverend Cecil L. "Chip" Murray-Revered pastor and AAA contributor that continues promoting love and equality through God's word

2. Harriet Tubman- American abolitionist and political activist that rescued enslaved people using antislavery activists, safe houses known as the Underground Railroad
3. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.- American Baptist minister and activist who became the most visible spokesperson and leader in the civil rights movement
4. Frederick Douglas- After escaping from slavery, he became a national leader of the abolitionist movement, social reformer, and statesman
5. Colin Powell- American statesman and a retired four-star general in the United States Army
6. Nelson Mandela- South African, anti-apartheid leader, and philanthropist
7. Maya Angelou- American poet, singer, memoirist, and civil rights activist
8. Aretha Franklin- Known as “The Queen of Soul”, her heartfelt music will continue inspiring the world
9. Oprah Winfrey- American media executive, talk show host, actress, producer, and philanthropist
10. Serena Williams- Professional tennis player and philanthropist that founded a school in Haiti

Encouraging readers toward the need for Authenticity, Accountability, and Ambition in their daily lives, Johnson aims to make America better through positive change that begins with honoring great leaders of the past and of the present.

Johnson concludes with a quote by Harriet Tubman, “Every great dream begins with a dreamer. Always remember, you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world.”
