AuthorCentrix Magazine Features The Cruise Runner: 2018 Edition

PERPIGNAN, FRANCE, FRANCE, September 4, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Luc Laurent has not only been successful in earning a spot for his book in the literary spotlight, but he also made a compelling visual source for The Cruise Runner, through the release of his website. The author is taking a step further as his book is featured in the AuthorCentrix Magazine together with other promising and veteran authors.

Following the author's victorious participation in the biggest recorded Book Fair in the United States of America, Laurent's book is among those stories that have been featured and written on the pages of the Magazine. The inside stories of this year's BookExpo America have been distributed to a thousand individuals during the Fair.

The readers are invited to discover the inside stories of The Cruise Runner which took place at the Fair by visiting the link:

<http://authorcentrix.com/authorcentrix-magazine-june-2018-issue/>. This source is made available not only to induce people to read advertising but more importantly to share with them the stories of authors who have been molded into becoming the best writers of their generation.

About the Author:

I have been a long distance runner for over thirty-five years. I have so far ran thirty marathons mainly the major's (e.g. New York, Boston, Chicago, Paris, London, Berlin) and also numerous 1/2 marathons, short and long distance triathlons.

My second passion is traveling around the world, hence this book title and its content.
