

Madame M's New Single, "Paranoid Fantasies", is Available Worldwide Today

Madame M is an up and coming contemporary pop/ singer-songwriter from Italy.

VENICE, ITALY, September 7, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Marta Dal Col known professionally as Madame M, has released her new single, "Paranoid Fantasies" on 7 September.

"Paranoid Fantasies" is a stripped down contemporary track that displays Marta's talented songwriting skills and beautiful voice. The song highlights different types of people who seem weak at first but later find solace among each other; rediscovering a new powerful strength, self respect and love. She created the whole storyboard for her upcoming music video (release date is 17 September) herself, furthermore showing off her artistic skills.

This song means more than it tells. It's not just my first release, it's one of the first ballads I've ever written and it represents the first real appearance of my persona, Madame M. - Marta Dal Col aka Madame M

Marta is from Treviso, a small city near Venice, Italy. She attended the MYES (My English School) with native English teachers and can sing both in English and Italian.

Marta was raised among a family of musicians. Along with her twin brother, she is the youngest of a family of seven; conformed by her parents, her two older sisters, and the middle sibling. Marta's siblings teach and study singing, classical guitar, violin, flute and cello, respectively. As a result of such diversity in musical genres and different musicians points of view, Marta had evolve her musical knowledge and background. Moreover, thanks to her family, she was introduced to international music at a very early stage of life which allowed Marta to familiarize herself with English, making it easy to pick up and to learn new words right away.
