Richard Kranitz

Prior to joining Advicoach, I worked for many years as a business attorney, primarily focused on counseling firms through all stages of growth from raw startup to public firms with hundreds of investors. I dealt with issues related to rapid growth, turn-arounds, venture capital and securities offerings, mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, turn-arounds and foreign operations. I served as a board member of companies in a wide range of industries as well as a number of tax exempt entities. Advicoach has given me an additional set of tools to aid entrepreneurs and managers to achieve their dreams.
