6 Key Reasons to Attend the 13th Annual Sell-out Series on Energy From Waste

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, September 7, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- EfW Policy and The Waste Hierarchy:

Don't miss the opening keynote from Dawn Woodward, Deputy Head, Resources and Waste, DEFRA, on the latest updates on England's resource and waste strategy surrounding waste policy. The Department of Transport will be providing an in depth overview of the UK biofuels policy. To put this into an industry perspective, the Environmental Services Association will discuss whether the policy will deliver in reality.

Case Studies:

“

Very worthwhile couple of days. Good overview of great topical EFW projects”

Cory Riverside

With a number of new case studies added to the programme, hear best practice on current projects presented by Cory Riverside Energy, Krakowski Holding Komunalny S.A., AEB, Cayman Islands Government, and more.

The Future of Financing - Challenges and opportunities in financing waste projects:

Funding needed through innovative financing solutions? Discover new opportunities to take the project forward with expert insight from Shelley De Souza, Assistant General Manager, SMBC.

Host Nation Keynote:

Energy Technologies Institute will address the new technologies and future trends within EfW, surrounding the strategic insights on gasification and implementation.

International Markets:

Highlights in the spotlight on energy from waste projects in international markets will include talks from Cayman Islands, Netherlands, Poland, UK, Belgium and Norway.

The Circular Economy:

Does EfW have a place in the circular economy? The Mayors circular economy and waste vision for London. What policies and programmes are available? How will this impact Energy from Waste? Hear more from SLR Consulting Limited and Greater London Authority, as they look into these factors affecting the UK.
