

Latin American band Party Of The Sin signed Major Worldwide/Global Distribution deal with Indie label G.I.Records LLC!

INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA, UNITED STATES, September 10, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Before Party Of The Sin....

Cine Marte band
For 8 years, since 2005, Pablo (drummer), Gabriel (Singer) and Zack (Bass) participated on a band called "Cine Marte". With two albums ("Un día de abril" 2009 y "verano" 2012), they were signed by EMI MUSIC CHILE | Emi Music Publishing Chile | Sony BMG Argentina | Sony Music Chile on 2007. They had a high recognition on south America and México. Their videos were broadcasted on MTV latin America during this years having a very good reception on the audience. This made that they had several interviews on radios and presentations on tv (<https://www.youtube.com/user/cinemartetube/videos>). Thanks of their most recognized singles "Dime a Donde", "Salvame", "Si los dos" and "Verano" the videos of this songs were on rotation on MTV for 2 to 4 months, by order of the audience, some of them get to the third place, for several weeks on a program called "Los 10 más pedidos" (The 10 most requested). All this made them have several gigs, being the most important one, open the concert in Chile for "James Blunt"

(<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CyJlvQbhOMI>) . For personal reasons the band ended on 2013. Some media links and Social networks not new to the music scene or the industry, with an impressive history and musical accolades they have paid their dues and now the group is back with a vengeance to take over the Latin American music globe with their amazing musical talents and mind blowing non stop skills. This time, with the assistance of Indie label such as G.I. Records LLC and label owner A&R Talent Scout Mr. Andrew "Drew" Knibbs and his experience music professional partners, the group will have the opportunity to cross over many barriers, and music genres that will reach the entire globe.

And now, to learn more about who Party Of The Sins really are, here is a little history on the band itself that music fans all over the globe would like to know:

Party Of The Sin

On 2015 four guys, that had been friends for more than 10 years started meeting and jamming just for fun. Some good ideas started coming up and the songs were formed. The different influences that has each one of us, gave something particular to the songs. We work with no boundaries. After that we decide to record and produce our own album. As well we decided to produce and record our own videos. So far we signed a contract with awal (Kobalt) for the digital distribution of the disc and we signed a non-exclusive contract with turner to pass our videos. The 3 videos are on air on this days on chilevision music channel.

Other contracts we have are with code 3 records and tribe of noise for syncs, Kult records, goindie.tv for tv and internet distribution of our videos, all of them non-exclusive and with GI Records LLC too. In addition our videos and music are being broadcast on some regional and national channels and radios (radio sonar.fm, futuro and others) and several international online streaming channels and sites, as we have made some interviews for national and international online radios and tv programmes (México). We have also played on some independent radio stations in the USA and
