The Beautiful Island of Nevis

Although Paradise Beach has added five new homes in addition to their seven existing luxury Balinese style villas, the property remains the smallest and most intimate resort on the entire island. While staying here, you will have 5-star treatment including complimentary concierge service your own private butler and housekeeper. A private chef can also be arranged.

Nevis is a very active island, and there is plenty to do nearby including hiking, swimming, biking, different water sports activities as well as day trips to St Kitt's. Catamaran trips can also be arranged, or for the more adventures, ATV tours of the Nevis beaches and countryside are a must. Perhaps you would prefer to simply relax in style at Paradise Beach on the sands of Pinney's Beach. The resort also features a private Beach Bar, steps away from your villa and is exclusive to guests at Paradise Beach. The beach bar is known as the 'Tiki Bar' features a thatch roof similar to what you would find in Bali and here the island mixologists will tantalize your senses with their specialty island recipes, such as the Planter's Spicy Rum Punch. If you feel like enjoying some local ambiance, then you can head down to the nearby local beach bar called 'Sunshine's' for a rum punch known as the "Killer-Bee."

Why Go to Nevis?

The island of Nevis is just 36 square miles – one of the many reasons to go is that you will be able to get a true Caribbean feeling. The island is largely untouched by mass tourism, the beaches are spacious, and the locals are extremely friendly.

You can enjoy the beauty of the island, mingle with the locals, drink rum punch and dance to live reggae music in some of the local beach bars. The island doesn't have any traffic lights, and you will never be stuck in a traffic jam. There are no designer hot spots in Nevis, but you will find plenty of high-quality villas and a lot of amazing restaurants which have some of the best food in the Caribbean.
