

Howe to Enterprise CEO Pamela M Nicholson: The Lee Port Authority Police Did Not Lie but Your Managers Did

Remarkably false statements made in open court contradict the fact-finding work of the Lee Port Authority Police and leave the public at financial risk

ST. LOUIS, MO, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, September 11, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "It's very simple," said David Howe of SubscriberWise. "The truth of what happened was covered up by EHI attorneys in a Lee Courtroom. The attorney repeatedly objected to the police report and sworn statements made by Enterprise managers. And why would an attorney object to a police report and the under-oath statement from the same witness that was called to testify in the Lee Courtroom? Is this due process in America? Is this equity? What was EHI afraid Judge Hayward would conclude had he been given the chance to read sworn testimony?"

"Today I'm making a public plea to meet with Enterprise CEO Pamela M Nicholson and senior management to discuss the details contained in the two public records," continued Howe. "I think it's only reasonable for the executive management to want to know what went wrong and how to evolve safeguards to protect consumers in the future."
