

Exeter Orthodontics Offering Affordable Alternative to Bethlehem Orthodontists

Exeter Orthodontics in Easton offers braces at prices much lower than those of Bethlehem orthodontists.

EASTON, PA, UNITED STATES, September 13, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bethlehem orthodontists charge thousands for braces or Invisalign. However, Exeter Orthodontics in nearby Easton is offering affordable alternatives to families throughout Northampton County.

Braces in Easton from Exeter Orthodontics cost only $3,995. This low price includes x-rays, retainers, repairs, and adjustments. Even emergency visits are covered. This price is a fraction of the cost other orthodontists may charge for braces in Bethlehem and surrounding areas.

Meanwhile, Invisalign in Easton is also available from Exeter Orthodontics. Like braces, Invisalign aligners cost only $3,995. These aligners fit transparently over a patient's teeth and can be removed for both eating and brushing.

"We want to help our patients, not harm them with high prices and hidden fees," says Dr. John Pardini, orthodontist in Easton.
