IntelliCart Rapidly Updates Capability Through Support for Subscriptions, Multi-tenancy and Seat Purchases

IntelliCart, the shopping cart plugin from IntelliBoard, is rapidly updating with client requested features: support for subscriptions and bulk seat purchasing.

MONROE, CT, UNITED STATES, September 19, 2018 / EINPresswire.com/ -- IntelliCart, the all-in-Moodle shopping cart plugin recently introduced by IntelliBoard, has quickly responded to client demand for expanded functionality for subscriptions, multi-tenancy, and bulk seat purchasing.

Clients using IntelliCart can permit users to subscribe to monthly payments, purchase products or "seats," in bulk, and support multi-tenancy within 1 Moodle instance through the use of "vendors." In addition, learners have access to a learner dashboard, powered by IntelliBoard. This dashboard permits the user to view the enrolled courses (purchases), payments, and waitlisted options available for purchase.

> Our goal is to be the all-in-Moodle solution for eCommerce. As we continuously expand IntelliCart to incorporate client needs, we develop an exceptional product."
